

Crush

Pendulum

I was running out into the cold light
Wondering where to go
To run away without you

All my fear is coming home
And it's ripped out from the soul
You can't be me
I will become you tonight

I was wandering under black skies
Watching at what is mine
No control left to lose
Well, I thought that it wouldn't face me
But I'm worrying like a child
I feel so guilty
I'll make it up to you tonight

Pictures that I've been dreaming are coming down
They're changing my future
Visions I had buried underground
Returning to the future

I was breaking out of my own skin
Choking upon release
I'm in no state to judge you

Scratching itches best left alone
Chasing memories I used to own
I can't wait till this is over tonight

Pictures that I've been dreaming are coming down
They're changing my future
Visions I had buried underground
Returning to the future

The nightmares I've been having have arrived
They're changing my future
The signs of my creation at my door
How could you do this to her?
