

Walking, running, searching for something
Premonitions in my mind
That turn into reality and vague replays
Premonitions in my mind
That turn into reality of future daze

Frightened of something
A feeling just something

Blabber

Do I really feel this weird sensation
Is it only in my brain
Or is it just an image flashing past my eyes

Is it just a trick of light
A brief acquaintance
In this life
Or is he from a memory
Deep inside of me

I wanna know

Déjà vu, déjà who, déjà me
Uncertain of the future I don't want to see
Wonder if you recognise
Remember me?
Who am I, who are you, who are we

Blabber

Do I really feel this weird sensation etc
