

Vision

Penetration

Take a trip to Lourdes for a miracle cure
Spend the last chance of hope
At the wooden Madonna
Kiss the feet of the statue and count the rosary beads
Watching the candles burn bright
Disappearing wax tears

Everlasting flame
Everlasting faith
Everlasting pain
Everlasting wait

From every direction the pilgrims crawl
With a sick expectation
As they pray for the vision

Everlasting flame
Everlasting faith
Everlasting pain
Everlasting wait

Did you see her in the chapel
Did you touch her
Did you see her
Wandering through the crowd
Did you touch her hand

Did you see her in the chapel
Did you touch her
Did you see her
Wandering through the crowd
Did you, did you touch her hand
Oh no

Everlasting flame
Everlasting faith
Everlasting pain
Everlasting wait

Did you see her in the chapel
Did you touch her
Did you see her
Wandering through the crowd
Did you touch her hand
Oh no, no, no, no (rpt til end)
