

Living for Today

Pennywise

One, two, three, four!

You look around
What do you see?
I'll tell you what I see
Is a world belonging to me
Take time to find
What you may dream
It's all right there within your grasp
Just beyond what you can see, well

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow
Well they'll have hell to pay

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow
Well they'll have hell to pay

And if life is Going by too fast
It's time for you to slow down
Time for you to make it last
Before you trip and slip
And you will miss
This happy little stepping stone
just before eternal bliss

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow
Well they'll have hell to pay

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow
Well they'll have hell to pay

Your life goes by
Before you know
You gotta take time to slow down
Better take time to veer off the road
Enjoy the sights
While you are here
There's nothing to fear but fear itself
Who knows when the end is near

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow

Well they'll have hell to pay

We're the ones, the only ones,
Strong ones, proud ones
We live for today
Those for the past and tomorrow
Well they'll have hell to pay

Don't make plans
With your hands tied
You'll never know
You're missing out repeatedly
On the things that help you grow
You've got to own your soul
You've got to take control!
Find a one day plan young man
Get this straight, live for today

Living for today I realized
Living for today I think I'll find
Living for today opened my eyes
Living for to...
Watch as you get blown away!

Living for today I realized
Living for today opened my eyes
Living for today I think I'll find
Living for to...
Just beyond what you can see yourself
