Pennywise

Try - still you got nowhere try and stay in line and live by all the rules thesy say to follow try to conform in your head they'll feed you bullshit you should swallow try their style don't give up you will blend in it's not tough to give up when you've tried to try for so long I can't wait to assimilate just try to stop me (you willing try) but you don't know pick yourself up by those boot straps dude and try try still you get nowhere try and stay in line and other forms you'll never know and if you got something to say I got a shotgun for a muzzle try their style don't give up you will blend in just try to conform it dosen't feel the same