

Dance Card

Pepper Rabbit

How am I,
On your dance card,
You and I,
We never seem to work that hard.
You and your goldfish,
Crowds and stares,
You and your best friend,
Like who cares.
Take me off of the bad red wall,
Dress me up and down the walk.
You and your goldfish,
Crowds and stares,
You and your best friend,
Like who cares.
I try to remind you,
Of the broken stares,
You fell down,
I left you lying there.
How am I,
On your dance card,
You and I,
We never seem to work that hard.
