

The Ballad Of Alessandro Moreschi

Pepper Rabbit

How'd you never come
To the pin by the bridge where we used to go out
How'd you never climb
Till our clothes were all worn with our face in the dirt
So you're stuck in the middle and you can't get out
No one's laughing or crying out loud
You wanted something but you couldn't get it
No one said we ever had to be friends
How'd you never leave
That tired old car from the side of the road
Rocking to and fro
Let's grab all the bottles, finish our drinks and we'll go
And we're stuck in the middle and you can't get out
No one's crying or laughing out loud
You wanted something but you couldn't get it
No one said we ever had to be friends
Everybody's laughing at you as if you never gave them time
Because I think I told you it's not your crime
Everybody's looking at you as if you never served them wine
And I think I told you this the right time
