

Undone

Pepper

You're calling,
You're asking,
If things have changed

You're sinking
And wishful thinking
So you unforget my name

Cause I've been a fool under all your rules and Given all you've asked me to
But the time apart has made me who I now am, I'm not you

Cause all that you've done is enough
And now I'm just as sure that you're sleeping
Let go of me, of my friends- everything
Cause I'll never feel like I used to, like I used to

I'm stating
Not complaining
The love is gone
There's no use
We both lose
And it's time that you moved on

Cause there's nothing more that you could do
And what stopped me, is what stopped you
And the more you try, the more I'm through who I am, I'm not you

Cause all that you've done is enough
And now I'm just as sure that you're sleeping
Let go of, of my friends- everything, everything
Cause I'll never feel like I used to

Here in the now, if you look
Now you won't find me
Time has a way to repair everything, so

Cause all that you've done is enough
And now I'm just as sure that you're sleeping
Let go of me, of my friends- everything, everything, everything
Cause I'll never feel like I used to

Cause all that you've done is enough
And now I'm just as sure that you're sleeping
Let go of me, of my friends- everything, everything, everything
Cause I'll never feel like I used to
Like I used to [x5]
I'll never feel...
