

Always Breaking My Heart

Per Gessle

Is this what you want
Every finger points at me
I'm eating your words,
But are they really here for me?
I've tasted it before.
You crashed at my door
You're bringing some hot stuff baby
So when you need me
In the middle of the night
I won't be there cos
You're always breaking my heart
You're always breaking my heart
You always tear it apart, yeah yeah yeah
So take off your shades, go get down on your knees and pray
But no powers from heaven
Could ever take the darkness away
My love rise on laughing mind.
Love talks to the roses
But you bring 'em bad bad weather
And when you call me
In the middle of the night, of the night
There's no one there cos
You're always breaking my heart
You're always breaking my heart
You always tear it apart,
yeah yeah yeah
Reach out a hand to hold.
Ain't it sad when the distance grows
Two hearts cling to their fates.
Hurry hurry don't be late
But I don't worry anymore
So when you need me
in the middle of the night Of the night
I won't be there cos
you're always breaking my heart
You're always breaking my heart
You always tear it apart, oh yeah
You're always breaking my heart
You're always breaking my heart
You always tear it apart, yeah oh yeah
