Be anyone you want to be
Be anyone you want to be
But baby, if you come as you are
That's alright with me

Everybody wants to be someone else Everybody wants to change their name and face Everybody wants to be on TV Everybody knows that 1+1=3

Be anyone you want to be Be anyone you want to be

But baby, if you come as you are That's alright with me

Everybody wants to be a man of the world Everybody wants to watch the poor little rich girl Everybody wants to sow the perfect seed Everybody wants to be what everybody needs

Be anyone you want to be
Be anyone you want to be
But baby, if you come as you are
That's alright with me
Everybody wants to change their shirts and ties
Everybody wants the truth behind all lies

I can stay all night
Just to watch your eyes
Everybody wants invisibility
My mother still wants Ringo to come on over for tea
Be anyone you want to be
Be anyone you want to be
But baby, if you come as you are
That's alright with me

Everybody wants to change their shirts and ties Everybody wants the truth behind all lies
