

Diamonds

Perkele

I don't need a glamorous life
Expensive cars and diamonds
I live for my wife and family
My friends my pride and freedom
I don't need a luxury life
Expensive houses and jewels
I live for my band and my guitar
Creating songs and music

All I need is you, you are all I need
You are all the diamonds in my life

All I need is you, you are all I need
You are all the diamonds in my life

I don't need a fabulous life
Fancy yachts and castles
I live for my wife and family
My friends my pride and freedom
I don't need an extravagant life
Fancy banquettes and parties
I live for my band and my guitar
Creating songs and music

All I need is you, you are all I need
You are all the diamonds in my life
All I need is you, you are all I need
You are all the diamonds in my life
