Perkele

I love your attitude I love your sound
You make me proud of what I am
You're a part of me and my life
Your rhythm is always in my heart

Forever and ever
You are always in my heart
Forever and ever

I love your energy, I love your beat
Your rhythm is pumping through my veins
It's in my blood, it's in my soul
