

He Loves Violence

Perkele

What he loves to kick some heads in Breaking some bones and see them bleeding
He gets a hard-on when he sees blood
When the weak sad losers, prays to god!

He loves, he loves violence
He loves, he loves violence, so much

He's a great cop in the town with his gun
He dreams about to shoot someone
Protected by the law, he knows what to do
Protected to put a bullet in you
