

Heroes of today

Perkele

You're standing against the mainstream
You're fighting against the scum
Having your own opinions
Ain't listen to anyone
Don't care what they think about you
Don't care what they say
You're hope you're future
You're the heroes of today

You're Heroes of today
You're the heroes
You're heroes of today
You're the heroes
of today

You're living for the music
You're keeping the scene alive having your own alternative
A different way to live
Don't care what they say is normal
It's normal for you and me
You're hope you're future
You're the heroes of today

You're Heroes of today
You're the heroes
You're heroes of today
You're the heroes
of today

You're Heroes of today
You're the heroes
You're heroes of today
You're the heroes
of today
