

You promise and you promise
Trying to get us to believe
When are you giving us the truth
You're talking and you're talking
Trying to get us on your side
But you won't take us for a ride

We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
Waiting for the paradise

We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
Waiting for the paradise

You're preaching and you're preaching
Trying to manipulate us all
But we're convinced that all is just a joke
You argue and you argue
Trying to get us to obey
But you're not fooling us no way

We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
Waiting for the paradise
We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
We're waiting for the good times to come
We're waiting for the change
Waiting for the paradise
