

Flaming Wreck

Pernice Brothers

I was so right, sitting stoned
Like a jewel-eyed baby
I was so right, never knew
I would feel so perfect
So perfect now
Let the plane slide off the ground
Is it once
Is it twice
Is it perfect now?

Five miles high, fallin' down
In a bloody mary
I was so right, never knew
It would be the perfect
Last words I spoke
As the cabin filled with smoke
Is it once,
Is it twice,
Is it perfect now?

Hello, hello, hello
Did you know that I would die for something new?
Take good care, someone who I never knew.

I was so perfect now
With my head above the ground
Is it once,
Is it twice,
Is it perfect now?

Hello, hello, hello
Did you know that I would die for something new?
Take good care, someone who I never knew.
Take good care, someone who I never knew.
Take good care

Hello, hello...
