Naked Man

Perry Blake

Naked man dreaming of a naked god Naked God dreaming of a clothed world Hopeless dawn offers up it's tragedy Fading sun washes out to sea

And you know that's how it goes When people steep themselves in faith You know that's how it goes That's how it goes

Child of prague, lying through it's broken teeth Get a dog, at least they don't forget

And we know that's how it goes When people steep themselves in love We know that's how it goes That's how it goes

Valentine, why should I remember you? Valentine, please let me forget. Valentine, why should I remember you? Valentine, please let me forget Let me go.
