

Together Forever

Perry Como

Together forever, forever together . . .

A man and a woman, are meant for each other,
Are meant for each other, as husband and wife.
From this moment forward, I promise to love you,
I promise to love you, the rest of my life.

Together forever, forever together,
For this is the promise we give,
Together forever, forever together,
Through all of the sorrow and happiness,
Together as long as we live!

(Together forever, forever together . . .)
