

Black Widow

Persephone

I'm a black widow
It was you who poisoned my mind
I'm sick of being kind
Playing the sacrificed
Today you are my prey!

I'm a black widow
It's time for the deadly game
It makes no sense to put up a fight
You can't flee
'Cause I'm starving and I'm ready to eat

I'm a black widow
Come into my arms, don't be shy
You're my imprisoned
Now you'll get what you deserve
Are you ready to die?

How does it feel? - the deadly kiss
Can you feel it? - the poison.....
The blood rushes through your veins
You shiver...and look full of pain...
Your lips are pale
You slowly getting high
Follow me into your worst nightmares

No-one can escape his fate
No-one can withstand her kiss

Black widow
Waiting for her sacrifice
Black widow
She loves to kill
