

Eternal Grief

Persephone

Hands across my face
'Cause I won't let you see
The sadness that I chased
Is now chasing me

Hands across my heart
'Cause I won't let you feel
Why we're now apart
This time it's for real

Heads in the sand
I am scared to death
For again a broken love
Or just the pain instead

Memories did not leave
So I still bear the pain
And thoughts of my belief
Remind me of your name
