

Guardian Angel

Persephone

I'm so tired now
But I cannot fall asleep
So many thoughts, so many fears
My eyes are full of tears

Someone takes my hand
I think I understand
I missed you for so long
What did I do wrong?

You said you're my guardian angel
Always by my side
How can I go on without you
Who will hold me tight?

I had no time to say goodbye
Left me breaking down and cry
You suddenly went away
A child alone afraid all day

Why did you leave me here alone
Crying myself to sleep all night long
Where ever you'll go, where ever you'll be
Promise - never, never without me

You said you're my guardian angel
Always by my side
How can I go on without you
Who will hold me tight?
