

Magic Mirror

Persephone

Her skin is wrinkled
Her glance is weak
She saw too much
She can't forget

Her music's gone
Her ears are deaf
She heard too much
She can't forget

Mirror, Mirror on the wall
Show me the most pitiful person of them all
Mirror, Mirror on the wall
Show me the most dreadful person of them all

Her thoughts are poisoned
Her mind insane
She gave too much
She can't forget

Her face a death mask
Her feelings numbed
She loved too much
She's dead inside

Mirror, Mirror on the wall
Show me the most loathsome person of them all
Mirror, Mirror on the wall

Still breathing
Her heart beats slowly
Only to remind her how she became this creature
No human being anymore
