

The End of the World

Persephone

All hope is gone
To rise again from dark
A black sun above the sky
Is this the end of the world?

Love turns (in)to hate
Never-ending silence
When cries are unheard
Is this the end of the world?

There's nothing left
While nature decays
The last dawn has broken
Is this the end of the world?

I stare at you
Your hollow eyes
The shine of pride lights up the night
When I dare to hope that you're still mine
Tomorrow's just a lie
