

Laniatus

Pestilence

Mangled and ripped from existence
Gateway to the unknown compels
Maintaining the ego is subsistence
Spirit guides restrain the soul to dwell

Escaping destiny is not an option
To face your reincarnation and fear
tearing the layers for absorption
Sakvation from denial is more than near

The physical nightmare has begun
Separation of the flesh and the soul
The mind cannot cope and goes into mental stun
Before acceptance to achieve the astral goal

Laniatus - ripping the soul from the flesh

Escaping destiny is not an option
To face your reincarnation and fear
tearing the layers for absorption
Sakvation from denial is more than near

Mangled and ripped from existence
Gateway to the unknown compels
Maintaining the ego is subsistence
Spirit guides restrain the soul to dwell
