

Multiple Beings

Pestilence

Hidden deep inside is one's personality Intentions unaware await to be set free

Memories of how one used to be repressed by life's reality Face what's left behind A life of a different kind

The truth, a thousand tales Twisted words, fantasies Spoken by the tongues of the faceless identities the beings so...

Multiple, Multiple

Revelation, of the inner transformation Betrayal, of your self-creation

Burial of a former life by the power of your energy Secrets long forgotten still hidden in the same entity
