

Saturation

Pestilence

Flooded with the energy of a thousand souls
Chaos merging with the timeless
The all knowing controls
The infestation of the heartless

Blackened entities merge with the already fallen
As the catastrophic scenario unfolds

Hopelessly trapped inside the multiple sphere
All reincarnations are now one
Becoming multiple beings
Full of fear

Blackened entities merge with the already fallen
As the catastrophic scenario unfolds

The never ending stream of the sick
Drenched and saturated with hate
Overshadows natural transitions that are basic Fucking up the holy just to complicate
