Pestilence

Paved roads of deceit
Leading to all life's directions
So many went ahead
Self-denial at their horizons

Reaching out for all that's there to achieve Despite your being and what you believe

Weakening of the truthful being
On the rise of a personality Within your own creation of lies soon you'll be

In search of your entity Betrayed by who you would like to be
A journey with your mind
Seeking traces you left behind

Eye-sights replaced by views driven by human desire Fulfillment of your dreams have made you a liar
