

I Get Excited (you Get Excited Too)

Pet Shop Boys

(Excited)

(Excited)

(Excited excited excited excited)

(Excited excited excited excited)

(I get excited)

(I get excited)

We're both in the gutter

That's no surprise

What does it matter

When I look in your eyes?

We've lost all our money

We're thrown out of bars

We're lying in the gutter

But we're looking at the stars

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)

I hear the sound of the subway

The sigh of the heat

The click of the visitors'

Heels on the street

The rattle of the taxi

The scream of the cars

The clatter of the dustbin

And the beat of my heart

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)

I don't know why, I don't know why (I get excited)

I don't know why, I don't know why

(Excited excited excited excited)

(Excited excited excited excited)

You're in my soul

My body moves to your control

Baby, I've been thinking about you

All night long, and the neighbours are talking

I don't know why, I don't know why (Excited) (I get excited)

I don't know why, I don't know why

(Excited) (I get excited)

We're both in the gutter

That's no surprise

What does it matter

When I look in your eyes?

We've lost all our money

We're thrown out of bars

We're lying in the gutter

But we're looking at the stars

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)
I don't know why, I don't know why (I get excited)
I don't know why, I don't know why
(Excited excited excited excited)
(Excited excited excited excited)
(Ooooooooooh)

I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)
I get excited, you get excited too (Excited) (I get excited)
I don't know why, I don't know why (I get excited)
I don't know why, I don't know why (I get excited)
I get excited, you get excited too
