Remedy

Pete Murray

She just likes her coffee Hot and black and in the morning sun Proceeds to read the papers Right on through until the sport is done Don't you know

I will bring you roses Big enough to brighten up your day And I don't hold your hand now But I'm sure I'm well on my way Don't you know You will be the sun When you rise you start my day And you will be the one Who controls my every way Can you be Can you be my remedy

You will be the sun When you rise you start my day And you will be the one Who controls my every way Can you be Can you be my remedy

Oh can you be Can you be my remedy

Oh can you be Can you be my remedy Bup, bup bah...
