All Lovers Are Deranged

Pete Townshend

It takes a fool to phone a fool When they both have said it all We make the rule and bemoan the rule That neither soul should call

But love that was is love that is Demands to always be unchanged But then all lovers are deranged

We walk away with memories And clutch them to our hearts We disembodied entities We loves in fits and starts

For love like wine intoxicates
It drives all of you drink insane
But then all lovers are deranged

You know that you don't really fall in love Unless you're seventeen
Then break your word, let your spirits fly
But you can't know what it means
Unless you're seventeen

It takes a fight to start a fight And differences remain We have the right to think, we're right We're addicts feigning shame

For love recalled, is love reborn We're determined to revive the pain But then all lovers are deranged All lovers are deranged

It takes a fool to phone a fool When they both have said it all We make the rule, bemoan the rule That neither soul should call
