I Am Secure

Pete Townshend

My room looks out to the wide open spaces. My heart is touched, By awakening faces. I see the panic, Of people in motion. I can stand here, Look out on an ocean. I am a wall, Awaiting a catchword. I see the city laid out like a patchwork. Alone, I am free, from hatred and blindness. I hope that this life, Is frozen and timeless.

My man is here, We grow old by inches. Tomorrow, I'll walk among heroes and princes.

I feed the boys, I hear secrets whispered. I know the hearts that are battered and blistered.

I am secure. In this world of apartheid, This is my cell, But it's connected to starlight.
