Committed

It's alright I won't commit my friend And if you pay for your mistakes You can break apology It's just fine I won't commit my friend When you come back from your escape You can make a person's day Cos it's your time You come back and you don't tell the truth to me, no more It's alright I won't commit my friend When you come back from your escape I don't need apology Yeah it's just fine I won't convince my friend And you don't know just what to say Once you make your plan you follow it just right I know you never meant to let nobody down You never feel the way I found Come and see Oh, I won't commit my friend You won't pay for your mistakes And I don't make apologies Yeah it's alright I won't convince my friend When you don't know just what to say I don't think I'll ever come to hear it all You wanna feel so bad for doing nothing all this time You're doing nothing (You just feel left out!) You're always up to no one's business Always up to: Only witness When you come back from your escape Then I could follow you to hell.
