

Someday

Pete Yorn

All i ask for is state of mind
But i can't keep myself in line
With all that changes and all that stays the same
Think i'll leave the past behind

All the things are different in my life
The words you said, i hear them on the side
Questions left unanswered, songs to gravitate
Feelings will not survive
The feeling cannot survive
With all the changes in my life
The feeling has survived
And i must wonder why

And now i see no reason to pretend
And i won't tell you that you're not my only friend but
I say a thousand things to try and change your mind
But i cannot trust you this time
No i cannot trust you this time
With all the changes in my life
I should have never never never never trusted you

Oh

Now inside you there's someone to depend on Guess it's true you're still my only friend, but
Like the candle slowly flickers out
As the memories fade away
The memories fade away
Memories fade away
Someday
Someday
Someday
