

Wear and Tear

Pete Yorn

Only you in the world
Seems so unfair
I'll take the chance
I'm taking
You are going down with me

I says to her
Take a number
No I can not lose it all again
Til I see ID

Well I sit everynight
And I wonder what I'm doing
I sleep everyday
In your room
I sit every night
Wondering where it is I'm going
Can not say what I do

Go to bed now girl
It's later and you think it's over
Celebrate out of the air, air, air
Now it's time to run out
Do myself some real good wear and tear
Then I'll do it all again
And again and again and again

Well I sit everynight
And I wonder what I'm doing
I sleep everyday
In your room
I sit every night
Wondering where it is I'm going
Can not say what I do

Go now
You don't really know me
Like I know myself
Myself, myself

I can not say what I do
I can not say, no, no, no
What I do
No I cannot say
What I do

I can not sit everynight
While you wonder what I'm doing
I sleep every day
In your room
I sit everynight
Wondering where it is I'm going
I can not say
What I do
I can not say
What I do
I can not say

What I do
I can not say
What I do
No I can not say
What I do
No I can not say
What I do
