

Goodbye Forever

Peter and the Test Tube Babies

You ate all my food, you spent all my money.
When I complained, you thought it was funny.
Well I've put up this, for far too long.
Well you slept in my bed, with another boy.
Being last to find out, was the thing that annoyed me.
I'll never trust another girl again.

So it's goodbye forever

I came back from our tour, and you'd messed about.
People turned away, when I quickly looked 'round.
They all laughed at me behind my back.

I'll dream sweet dreams, of things to come.
Places to visit, friends to have fun with.
I'll drink a toast to independent choice.
