

What's it to be rich, does it tear you apart?
When all the girls are aboard, and your yacht won't start.
Does it piss you off, make you wanna cry?
You're so fucking rich there's nothing left to buy.

Well this is you, you're a sad jetsetter.
Give it all to me, you will feel feel much better.

What's it like to be rich, it must be a pain?
Everyday you drink the best champagne.
I bet your life you must be depressed, it's all for you, nothing but the best.
