

Maniac

Peter and the Test Tube Babies

I creep down alleys and peep thru blinds, I strangle and kill a ny children I find.

I like meeting people when they're dead, I take some of them ba ck to bed.

I'm a maniac, I'm an insaniac, I'm a maniac, are you a maniac t oo?

Catching, eating spiders and flies, seducing people on telephon e lines.

I like little girls of nine or ten, I love making love to them.

Setting light to dogs and cats, breaking into old ladies flats.

Why is everyone laughing at me? Why is everyone laughing at me?
