

Shit At It

Peter and the Test Tube Babies

I wake up in the morning light, go back to sleep 'cos today is shite.

No good at this no good at that, I'm born to live and die a prat.

Don't wanna be top of the charts, 'cos I don't really look the part.

No, I can't mime and I can't act, who really wants to be a cat.

...That's it, that's it, I quit, I'm shit at it .. SHIT, SHIT, SHIT AT IT !

Tried to write a song about love, but Del came 'round so we went to the pub.

No good at this no good at that, I'm born to live and die a prat.
