

Bad As You Are

Peter Andre

Your my angel, your my devil your my lover, your my So beautiful and bad,
but I'm sleeping with the enemy,
Where did my brain go?
thinking with my heart.

You brought along your evil twin,
and you let her take over this love - whoa!
And now I'm caught up inbetween,
and I can't make out which one you are, oh
as bad as you are,
Like poison you're no good to my heart,
but I need you girl, as bad as you are!
You got me crippled, broke my defensions
and I keep coming back to you,
as bad as you are!

I'm your shower, I'm your towel marks from mascara, leaving spades I'm your world, at the bottom of your feet.
Where did my brain go?
thinking with my heart.

You brought along your evil twin,
and you let her take over this love - whoa!
And now I'm caught up inbetween,
and I can't make out which one you are, oh
as bad as you are,
Like poison you're no good to my heart,
but I need you girl, as bad as you are!
You got me crippled, broke my defensions
and I keep coming back to you,
as bad as you are!

But I cant blame you,
for what I'm allowed Holding me captive to get your way - hey!
this gift came with a curse, cant seem to shake it off.
Still wanna stay with you!
as bad as you are!

Like poison you're no good to my heart,
but I need you girl, as bad as you are!
You got me crippled, broke my defensions
and I keep coming back to you, as bad as you are! - (2x)
