

And I Think Of You

Peter Cetera

Where did you go - why did you run
What did you need from me you felt we were missing
Now you never write - and you never call

What did you want - I couldn't give
You should've told me baby I would have listened
Why did you leave - when we had it all

And I think of you
Yes I think of you

Everywhere I go - anytime of the day
Every move I make - every word that I say
If I let myself I get carried away
When I think of you
I still think of you

Time on my hands doesn't seem right
I'll never get used to this single life
And now I wonder what you're doing tonight

We got away from it all
In a house upon the hill
I loved you then and I always will
Oh Oh Oh Oh Oh
