Me and you

Look at these few old photographs
This was the first day that we met
The sun is shining but you're so wet

I know that it started near the place
Where I was born and went to school
This big old house is no more there

There were our friends and you and me
We were so young and wild and free
The best summer it seemed to be

Me and you on the photograph
When I see it makes me laugh
You said that you never saw it
Me and you on the photograph
So much crazy things we've done
Now it's forgiven we were young

I remember now the day
When I was walking down the fields
Drinking water from the rain

Look at this picture you can see
That you are walking next to me
And you are so wet - just like me
