Poison ivy ain't nothin'
By the time it gets to you
Been stung by forty bees
So the lotion just won't do
Hey big brother don't you have a mother
To wash the blood from your hands
You gotta say no way
I ain't gonna play that game

You've gotta strike
For a reason
You've gotta strike
For the right
You've gotta strike
For emotion
You've gotta strike
To be free

'Cause he's a CIA agent And he's always on your tail But if you know how to shake him He won't be your living hell

Gotta see the money's real They'll say they love you Behind your back they'll steal

Hey big brother don't you have a mother To wash the blood from your hands You gotta say no way I ain't gonna play that game

You've gotta strike
For a reason
You've gotta strike
For the right
You've gotta strike
For emotion
You've gotta strike
To be free

'Cause he's a CIA agent And he's always on your tail So be careful where you're walking He'll be there You've gotta strike
