Hour Of Need

Peter Frampton

I don't wanna live my life in chains Feel these voices roaming in my brain All they do is dig a deeper hole Deep enough to hold my tortured soul

Here come the demons as far as I can see Runnin' and screamin', chasing after me Maybe I'm dreaming but I know I wont be free 'til Rider and horse drown in the sea Rider and horse drown in the sea

There ain't nothing for me down these tracks But an ugly monkey on my back I need an angel like I need a face Somethings a hit me like a ton of bricks

Here come the demons as far as I can see Runnin' and screamin', chasing after me Maybe I'm dreaming but I know I wont be free 'til Rider and horse drown in the sea Rider and horse drown in the sea

Here come the demons as far as I can see Runnin' and screamin', chasing after me Maybe I'm dreaming but I know I wont be free 'til Rider and horse drown in the sea Rider and horse drown in the sea Rider and horse drown in the sea
