

Earthbound

Peter Hammill

My heart flew in my mouth the moment that your eyes locked mine
. I blurted something out along these lines: we're earthbound but we all long for flight...

My heart's worn on my sleeve: I'd offer all I could contrive if only you'd believe you flood my mind. We're earthbound but you spring my heart alive.

My heart's stopped in its tracks - what train of thought has ju st arrived while gravity's cruel tax drags me to ground? We're earthbound but you spring my heart to life. We spin around, we' re earthbound but you spring me free to flight.

Eathbound, we're earthbound, all earthbound... but we all long for flight.

Heartbreak the anagram: But hero Dan had no brute boar hunted;
doubt he ran but heard no burned oath; undo breath, do burn hat e, be hard unto burned oath, undo breath...

Earthbound.
