

I Hate You

Peter Heppner

I'm feeling great, I'm feeling fine
Oh, how wonderfully good it can be to know
Revenge is mine

You may think I will forget
And that time will wash away all the things
You should regret

But I will find a way
Do not think I can't wait

I hate you, from the bottom of my heart
I hate you, I'll kick and I'll break you
And I won't tear myself apart
I hate you, from the bottom of my heart

You can't make your words unsaid
No matter how much you ever try to make
Me forget

It's not a dream, this is real
The world is not your own fairy-tale and so
You will see

Revenge is enjoyed the most
If it's eaten cold

I hate you, from the bottom of my heart
I hate you, I'll kick and I'll break you
And I won't tear myself apart
I hate you, from the bottom of my heart
