The Prince & Old Lady Shade

Peter Murphy

The prince was a bird Not guilty or the like A true friend sip and soft No suffering cry

All names and some cranks He'd powdered all off Their sycophantic gifts Were never enough

Old lady shade turns A Vespertilian thing A motion event A friend of the jinn

The prince and old lady shade The prince and old lady shade

She has a fair eye
She takes her fair share
Of the city's mid day
That lunch lady's glare

The prince and old lady shade The prince and old lady shade

General Woo very nearly smiled Saw the light in the little child

The prince and old lady shade
The prince and old lady shade
Oh
Oh
