

The different story

Peter Schilling

I'm so lonely on my way,
Waiting for a better day.
Only one thing left behind:
A world of lust and crime.

There's no place for me to hide.
I don't know what's wrong or right.
Pain and sorrow in my mind;
A world of lust and crime.

See the wiseman in the graveyard;
Screaming play the different story.
Lonely people in his Soul, Heart
Know the answer just for everything.

Love turns a friendly card.
With a different story it'll open your heart forever,
Love is a endless game.
You don't have to worry 'cause it's easy to play.

There's a chance for me and you,
Making all our dreams come true.
Trust enough and you won't find
A world of lust and crime.

See the wiseman in the graveyard;
Screaming Play the different story.
Lonely people in his Soul, Heart
Know the answer just for everything.

Love turns a friendly card.
With a different story it'll open your heart forever.
Love is a endless game.
You don't have to worry 'cause it's easy to play.

See the wiseman in the graveyard;
Screaming play the different story.
Lonely people in his Soul, Heart,
Know the light of hope and glory.
