Roll Off

Petey Pablo

Who rang my phone? That boy gon be a singer one day fo real Naw man get serious for a minute I said And I said And I said Cuz he told me, cuz he told me, cuz he told me Why should I worry about what people say? When they gon talk about me anyway They gon make up all sort of thangs I just got to be the bigger man And let it roll off The talk don't bother me I believe in me if nobody else does And let it roll off Just like the one and only feather of a dove's back, yeah, I said You know it probably wouldn't worry me so much If I was out there and behind closed doors I was what they call caught up Stealin donkin and drugs, livin reckless And takin advantage of all I worked so damn hard for Really needed help, but afraid to ask Lonely, depressed, or just needed someone else On the verge of givin up, paranoid, scared Totally overlookin how much I been blessed How could you understand what you say they said And most of all why they said it, and I just nod my head When you wrong you're wrong, I'll admit it I'll confess to anything if I did it But to spread unnecessary lies, I don't get it How could you find enjoyment in my business? You know what, forget it Talk my nigga If you wasn't talkin about me, I probably miss ya Petey doin this, Petey doin that I seen Petey here, but what he doin there? Why you don't come and ask It aint gon make me mad I respect that more than you doin it like you have. Botherin my family scarin them to death Why you talking to them about me When you can talk to me yourself I might blast back, lose it And tear into your ass Or I could be a man about it And talk and clear the air But you don't never know that cuz you won't take the chance What that mean? You missin somethin in the crotch of your pants He can make me laugh Cuz sometime the story can be so outrageous can't say nothing but damn You know what I really am? Beyond that

Her momma told me somethin one day And I ain't forgot it If they scared to my lie to my Heavenly Father's precious name Then who am I to complain?

I don't care, go head Stop, get away from here Leave me alone, leave me alone I don't care, go head Stop, get away from here Leave me alone, leave me alone Leave me alone, leave me alone

The rumors you spread don't bother me The lies you tellin don't bother me I thought about it And I wouldn't be no better than you

I don't care, go head Stop, get away from here Leave me alone, leave me alone Leave me alone, leave me alone
