

Can't Take it

Phantom Planet

Something strange,
Somehow I get the feeling
I'm where everyone knows your name,
It's not much different, but its surely not the same you'll find peace in knowing now, I'm so sick and tired of hearing myself believe me, I never guessed,
You had one up your sleeve well there I go

So smile you've done your part,
but I'm waiting for someone to say,
I cant take it any more, yea,
Cant take it any more, yea
Whats so wrong with being sad

Left alone,
I was stuck to go over all the things
That I've done wrong,
sure I was stuck in a hole
But now we've got our song
After all the love is gone,
Where'd you get off saying
It's not so lame
We've had it different and I know we're not the same
So there I go

So smile you've done your part,
but I'm waiting for someone to say,
I cant take it any more, yea,
Cant take it any more, yea
Whats so wrong with being sad
