

Rest Easy

Phantom Planet

It's all clear,
No need for you to fear,
Nothing's under the bed tonight
It's alright
No need for you to fright,
Nothing's after you tonight

If I pretend that I'm asleep
Will that prevent from making me
their next meal,

It's alright
No need for you to fright,
You've only lost your sense of sight
Rest your head
And dream yourself to bed,
Or else I wont sleep well tonight

If I pretend that I'm asleep
Will that prevent from making me
their next meal,

If I hold out to the light of day
Will they disintegrate away, far away
